Teddy Abrams, conductor

Louisville, KY (March 9, 2017) ... The Louisville Orchestra Neighborhood Series and the LG&E Music Without Borders Series continues with A Classical Symphony on Wednesday, March 22 at the Adath Jeshurun; Thursday, March 23 at Valley High School; and Friday, March 24 at the Ogle Center at IUS. Tickets are $20 and are available at the door(s), by calling 502.584.7777 for the Louisville shows or 812.941.2020 for the New Albany, Indiana concert, or visit LouisvilleOrchestra.org.

Teddy Abrams and the Louisville Orchestra will perform music that highlights each section of the orchestra – brass, winds, and strings. Then the Orchestra comes together to perform the “Classical Symphony” by Sergei Prokofiev.

Abrams says, “In this concert we celebrate the whole as well as the sum of its parts. Bookended by music in the Classical and Neoclassical styles for the entire ensemble, the core of our program highlights all the individual sections of the orchestra.”

Program:

W.A. MOZART	Overture to The Magic Flute
PAUL DUKAS	Fanfare to La Peri
GEORGE WILLIAM HESPE	The Three Musketeers, Suite
W.A. MOZART	Serenade No. 10 (Gran Partita), Mvt. 1 & 3
SAMUEL BARBER	Adagio for Strings
SERGEI PROKOFIEV	Classical Symphony
