The Louisville Orchestra presents HEROES + VILLAINS The Final Family Concert of the 2016-17 Season

Louisville, KY (March 3, 2017) ... The Louisville Orchestra with guest conductor, Kelly Corcoran presents the family concert, HEROES + VILLAINS on Saturday, March 18 at 11AM at the Brown Theatre. This concert features music about the good guys and the bad guys of real life and in fiction! The music is all about heroes from our own community... our firefighters. But let's not forget about the villains. First we encounter Star Wars character Darth Vader, then the bizarre "Baba-Yaga" of Slavic folklore, and then Disney gives us great music about Cruella de Vil, Gaston, and Prince Ali. Join in the musical fun for the final Family Series concert of this season.

The LO Family concerts are kid-friendly and parent-pleasing, too. The fun starts at 10AM with pre-concert activities provided by the Louisville Fire and Police departments and the Louisville Free Public Library in the lobby. Then a one-hour concert is just right for youngsters aged 4 to 12 years old.

General admission tickets are $15 and available by calling 502.584.7777 or visiting LouisvilleOrchestra.org
