YOU CAN DO MAGIC!

Louisville, KY (January 19, 2016)... It all came together seamlessly. Their fathers were in the Air Force stationed just outside of London. The three boys went to high school together and became known as "the American boys." When they formed their band, the name was obvious – America. Their self-titled first album was met with critical success and included their first platinum single, "Horse with No Name." That was over 45 years ago. Dewey Bunnell and Gerry Beckley are now in their 60s and are still great friends making, great music together and touring the world with roughly 100 shows a year.

On Saturday, February 4, Dewey and Gerry join Bob (Bernhardt) and YOUR Louisville Orchestra at the Kentucky Center for a night of America's greatest hits!

Pre-intermission, Bernhardt will lead the LO in American music by Leonard Bernstein, Aaron Copland, Duke Ellington and John Williams. The second part of the concert will be hit after hit by America, including: "Tin Man," "You Can Do Magic," "I Need You," "Ventura Highway," "Lonely People," "Sister Golden Hair" and so many more!

Tickets range from $27 - $69 and are available by calling 502.584.7777 or by visiting LouisvilleOrchestra.org.

This performance is made possible by the generosity of LG&E and Hilliard Lyons.
Additional support provided by Don and Ann Kohler.
