2018-2019 BROWN-FORMAN CLASSICS CONCERTS

Selecting highlights from the 2018-2019 Classics Series proves difficult, as many of the concerts are unique, multi-layered, festival-like experiences for which Teddy Abrams has become known. The Classics Series opens on September 29 with a celebration of Leonard Bernstein's 100th birthday. Joining in the two-year international birthday party, Teddy Abrams conducts an all Bernstein program featuring the legend's first symphony, "Jeremiah" along with songs from West Side Story, Candide and On the Town sung by "a chanteuse of the highest order," Morgan James. Louisville Orchestra's principal oboist, Alexander Vvedenskiy will take the spotlight on November 17 performing Richard Strauss' Oboe Concerto in D Major. Revered conductor and composer Leonard Slatkin graces Whitney Hall stage to conduct Elgar's Enigma Variations on January 12. The Festival of American Music starts on February 23, and this year Teddy collaborates with the Louisville Ballet in reimagining Aaron Copland's Appalachian Spring along with the world premiere of The Way Forth, a folk opera by Rachel Grimes. The season comes to a close with Beethoven's powerful Ninth Symphony on May 10 + 11.

All Classics concerts are on Saturdays at 8PM at The Kentucky Center and are sponsored by Brown-Forman. LO Concert Talks take place at 7PM before each concert and are hosted by Classical 90.5FM WUOL and one of the Louisville Orchestra's extraordinary musicians.

Individual tickets will be available on August 1 at 10AM by calling The Kentucky Center box office at 502.584.7777 or by visiting LouisvilleOrchestra.org

*In April, the Kentucky legislature approved House Bill 487, which extends the state's 6% sales tax to a variety of services. As a result, many nonprofits statewide will have to add an extra 6% for admission prices to cultural and athletic events. The change comes from a recent state Supreme Court ruling that says the Kentucky Constitution does not exempt nonprofits from state sales and use taxes.
